

SONG CYCLE: vive la vélorution! by Alexander L'Estrange

Dear Concert Organiser,

We're very pleased that you are going to perform Song Cycle: vive la vélorution! by Alexander L'Estrange. Here are some notes about things which may help. Most of them are mentioned on the Song Cycle website (www.songcyclelv.com) but we thought a quick reminder might be useful.

Vocal Score: Song Cycle: vive la vélorution is published by Faber Music Ltd. Obtain the full Vocal Score (sale or hire) and performance licence from Faber Music (0-571-53766-9); tel +44 (0)1279 828907 or email Hire@fabermusic.com.

Children's Choir: The PDF score for Children's Choir is available separately from Faber Hire Library: hire@fabermusic.com. This comes with a free "Children's Learning MP3" - perfect for rehearsing along to in school or choir practice and suitable for use by non-specialist music teachers, as there are spoken cues, count-ins etc on the backing-track. Lots of fun!

SATB Part-learning MP3's for your choir: you can order part-learning MP3's (sung) to help some who may not be proficient sight-readers. These are £10 per voice/£40 the set. This includes permission to make as many copies as you wish for your choir members. These are available on the website "For Choirs" page: www.songcyclelv.com/for-choirs. A link for you to download them will be emailed to you on payment.

Instrumental quintet: Alexander can bring his own Call Me Al quintet to play at the concert if available on that day. (Book early!) Otherwise he is happy to advise and/or book a similar quintet for the event. Email Alexander about this directly at music@alexanderlestrange.com and then I (Jane) will draw up a contract and act as your point of contact after that.

Please note that the Band parts need to be hired through Faber: [hire@fabermusic.com, tel +44 (0)1279 828907.

If Alexander is playing at the concert he is happy to warm up the choir on the day, introduce the concert and sign CDs.

By negotiation, the Call Me Al quintet can contribute an instrumental number or two - for example, an Argentine tango, Scottish jigs and reels or some jazz - or even accompany another choral piece in the concert besides Song Cycle. Alexander is happy to discuss cost and rehearsal time as and when it arises.

Workshop with the composer in advance: Alexander can either introduce the piece to the choir early in the rehearsal process (some choirs like to run this as a "Come and Sing" day, where they invite singers from the community and from other choirs, to help boost membership and spread the word) or at a point nearer the event. This could be a whole day event, a "twilight" session, a Saturday morning or a weekday evening. Book early!

Bulk copies of the Song Cycle: vive la vélorution CD: you can order bulk copies of the full CD
